

Scouts Canada
White Pine Council - Whitby Area
Annual White Tail Slap

What: All white-tail beavers in the Whitby area are invited to participate in Cub-related program activities run by cub leaders and youth. This very fun day will take away the anxiety of leaving beavers behind and moving up to cubs. ALL ACTIVITIES TAKE PLACE OUT DOORS - Please dress according to the weather!!!!

When: Saturday, April 17th, 2010 from 9:30 to 3pm.

Where: Council Hall, Camp Samac. (Use the Conlin Rd entrance.)

Cost: $10* per youth, includes lunch and crest!

Details: Some of the activities planned for this special day include:

- The Jungle Book lore (Cubbing's background atmosphere is based on Rudyard Kipling's book)
- tents and camp equipment
- wide games
- bannock (a special camp treat)
- badges and knots (cub program)
- cub-related craft
- kub kars (like beaver buggies only faster!)
- campfire
